OneJax Names New Executive Committee and Board Members for 2009

JACKSONVILLE (August 11, 2009)—OneJax has announced its new slate of officers and board members to serve through June 30, 2011. “I couldn’t be more excited about working with such a dedicated group of volunteers,” said new board president Brenda B. Ezell. “They bring outstanding talent, energy and diversity to their work, and we will be harnessing those qualities to help improve the Jacksonville community.”

Members of the Executive Committee are: Brenda B. Ezell, board president; Tatiana Salvador, board president-elect; George M. Good, Jr., treasurer; Richard Salkin, secretary; Hon. Brian J. Davis, chair of the Advocacy committee; Joseph Mitrick, chair of the Nominating (Development) committee; Philip Mobley, immediate past board president (ex-officio); and Marc M. Mayo.

Returning board members include Dr. Parvez Ahmed, Carol Anderson, Dr. Sol Brotman, Mary Coxe, Dr. Steven Goyer, Susan Hamilton, Hon. Marcia Morales Howard, Henry Johnson, Rabbi Joshua Lief, Ramin Mahmoodi, Lynn McDowell, Jeffrey Marks, Mary Alice Phelan and Steven Steuart.

New board members include Vicki-lynne Gloger, Susan Wilkinson, Rev. Kyle Reese, Fr. Nick Louh and Elana Schraeder, MD.

OneJax is an interfaith organization that promotes respect and understanding among people of different religions, races, cultures and beliefs. The agency works to overcome bias, bigotry, and racism through education, community building and advocacy initiatives. Visit them at www.onejax.org.
