ABOUT ONEJAX

A PROUD TRADITION OF SERVICE IN NORTH FLORIDA

Originally formed as a local chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews in 1970 and later known as the National Conference for Community and Justice, the organization has addressed the ever-changing needs and challenges that come with promoting interfaith respect, acceptance and inclusion. In 2005, the Jacksonville chapter disaffiliated from its national group and formed OneJax.

The reputation of OneJax and its work continued to grow over the next several years. The range of topics addressed in its many forums of discussion expanded to include ethnicity, race, culture, ability/disability, sexual orientation and identity. Between 2012 and 2023, OneJax was affiliated with the University of North Florida, serving both the campus community and the greater Jacksonville community at large. OneJax reclaimed it's independent, 501(c)3 nonprofit status in July 2023.

OUR GUIDING PRINCIPLES

RESPECT. We respect and value every person's human dignity.

UNITY. We celebrate our common humanity and we honor our differences.

COURAGE. We stand together and speak out when oppression hurts people.

CREATIVE TENSION. We face disagreement and discord to elicit better ideas and outcomes.

FAITH. Our commitment to a common vision is rooted in our individual and diverse faiths.

ACCOUNTABILITY. We act responsibly with those we serve and with those who support us.

INTEGRITY. We live the principles we talk about in our everyday lives.
