WHAT IS THE SANDY MILLER METROTOWN INSTITUTE?

This OneJax Leadership Institute is named for the transformative leader of Metrotown, Sandy Miller. Sandy Miller Metrotown Middle is a leadership program for students entering grades 7-8. These young people come together to explore living successfully in a diverse world. This Leadership Institute aims to promote respect and understanding among all people. We achieve this through small group discussions, creative expression, outdoor activities, and more! At Sandy Miller Metrotown Leadership Institute, students practice leadership skills like healthy communication and are empowered to create strategies for living and working differently together!

The Sandy Miller Metrotown Leadership Institute is supported with funding from:

The Sandy Miller Metrotown Leadership Institute Middle School Delegate Application

HOW DO I BECOME A SANDY MILLER METROTOWN LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE DELEGATE?

Students are usually referred by an adult mentor, teacher, counselor, clergy leader, community leader, or parent who recognizes the gifts you have to offer. The referring adult is considered your sponsor. In some cases, a sponsor may assist financially with the registration fee. You must complete the enclosed application form to apply for Sandy Miller Metrotown Leadership Institute.

Please email your completed application to onejax@onejax.org.

Shortly after receipt of your application, a OneJax staff member will contact you about your next steps toward becoming a delegate in the 2024 Sandy Miller Metrotown Middle Leadership Institute.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

The delegate's financial responsibility for the three days is a $50.00 Registration Fee. Lunch and snacks will be provided all 3 days, with dinner provided on Thursday. Insurance, educational and resource materials, and use of site facilities are covered through the generosity of our sponsors. Delegates are encouraged to contribute or find support for as much of the leadership program's cost as possible.

Financial assistance is available based on need. No one will be prevented from attending because they cannot afford the registration fee. If participation depends upon receiving financial assistance, please check the financial assistance box on the application form. This information is necessary for processing and will be kept confidential.

For additional information, please contact OneJax at (904) 799-5370 or onejax@onejax.org.

OneJax is a non-sectarian, nonprofit agency dedicated to increasing understanding and respect among people across all differences. Our human relations programs are carefully designed to support the development of responsible and caring citizens – people who are equipped to meet the challenges and seize the opportunities of our diverse and interdependent world.
