ABOUT ONEJAX

A PROUD TRADITION OF SERVICE IN NORTH FLORIDA

Originally formed as a local chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews in 1970 and later known as the National Conference for Community and Justice, the organization has addressed the ever-changing needs and challenges that come with promoting interfaith respect, acceptance and inclusion. In 2005, the Jacksonville chapter disaffiliated from its national group and formed OneJax.

The reputation of OneJax and its work continued to grow over the next several years. The range of topics addressed in its many forums of discussion expanded to include ethnicity, race, culture, ability/disability, sexual orientation and identity. Between 2012 and 2023, OneJax was affiliated with the University of North Florida, serving both the campus community and the greater Jacksonville community at large. OneJax reclaimed it's independent, 501(c)3 nonprofit status in July 2023.

OUR GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Our core values are rooted in the following beliefs.

We believe in...

Protecting and respecting the fundamental right of every person to practice any faith, or none at all.

Valuing the inherent worth of every human being.

Pursuing mutual respect and shared purpose, while honoring and celebrating our unique contributions.

Engaging with others in a spirit of kindness and empathy.

Nurturing relationships and meaningful connections among individuals, ideas, and communities.

Being brave and persevering even when it is challenging
